

Write your name _____ ID _____ Section _____ Date:

Write in the missing verbs. Spell the verbs correctly.
Try to figure out what the rules are for spelling verbs in English.

CAUSE: The heavy rain is _____ major transport problems.

WORK: Currently the trains and ferries are not _____

HELP: The emergency services are _____ local residents.

MOVE: Right now they are _____ people to safe areas.

GIVE: They are _____ them food.

LOOK: A group of fishermen are lost at sea and rescue teams _____ for them.

WRITE: Hi everyone. Today I'm _____ from a city under attack from a hurricane.

LIVE: As you know I live in the city center. Before I was _____ in the suburbs.

BE: The streets _____ usually busy at this time of day, but today they are empty.

WAIT I'm still _____ for the hurricane,

GET: Right now the winds are _____ stronger.

HIT: The rain is _____ the windows. It's so noisy!

FLY: It's here. Amazing! Trees are _____ down the street.

Write your name _____ ID _____ Section _____ Date:

SIT: The noise is incredible! I'm _____ on the floor behind my table in case the windows break.

TURN: Incredible! Right now the street is _____ into a river.

DO: This _____ not usually happen.

CARRY: The water is _____ cars down the street.

RISE: The water level is still _____.

ANSWER: At the moment the police are not _____ the phone..

GO: I am _____ to the roof now, wish me luck.

What is the rule for verbs like ... ?

Cause, move, give, write, live, rise

Get, hit, sit

Answer

Fly, carry

Work, help, look, wait, turn, go

BE (am, is, or are)

DO (do or does)