

Present Simple – 3rd Person Singular (Positive)

There are two forms for the simple present tense; one ends with -s and the other doesn't.

Subject	Verb Form	Example
I	simple form	I sing
You	simple form	You sing
He	simple form + S	He sings
She	simple form + S	She sings
It	simple form + S	It sings

Most verbs are formed by adding -S. However, with some verbs, you need to add -ES or -IES. Here are the rules:

Verb ends with	How to make	Example
s	Add -ES	He passes
z	Add -ES	She waltzes
sh	Add -ES	She wishes
ch	Add -ES	He watches
x	Add -ES	She mixes
consonant + y	Change Y to I, then add -ES	It flies
vowel + y	Add -S	He plays
all other verbs	Add -S	He sings

Present Simple – Third Person Singular (Negative)

When forming negatives use: DON'T or DOESN'T.

However, the main verb stays in the simple form – WITHOUT s.

For example:

- I like apples. I don't like oranges.
- She lives in Fujairah. She doesn't live in Dubai.
- My father works at a bank. He doesn't work at a school.
- Basma studies English. She doesn't study Arabic.

Present Simple – Third Person Singular (Questions)

When forming questions use: DO or DOES.

The main verb again stays in the simple form – WITHOUT s.

For example:

- Do you like oranges?
- Does she live in Dubai?
- Does your father work at a school?
- Does Basma study Arabic?
